

Companies exiting China to India

As a side effect of the COVID-19 pandemic, many MNCs are planning to shift out from China to other countries. It can be a righteous opportunity for India to emerge as an alternative investment destination for these countries. All the ministries and departments are planning to propose attractive proposals for these companies so that they can establish their MNCs in India.