

Eightfold AI startup raises $125 million in funding

Eightfold AI startup has raised $125 million in its Series D funding round which was led by General Catalyst. The startup said, "The existing investors were Capital One Ventures, Foundation Capital, IVP, and Lightspeed Venture Partners."

These funds will be used to expand Eightfold's AI-powered Talent Intelligence Platform, a unique solution for managing the entire talent lifecycle. The company currently works with customers covering 110 countries, 17 industries, and 13 languages.