

Fuel Price Crosses Rs 100 per Litre Across The Cities

State-run oil manufacturing companies have slog fuel prices again. The fresh increase in petrol and diesel price comes after a day's gap as worldwide crude oil rates strengthen.

On Tuesday Global oil prices dropped since investors cashed in on a recent rally but the market sentiment was positive in hopes of a quick recovery in oil demand. Brent crude futures went down by 10 cents or 01% to $74.80 per barrel whereas US West Texas Intermediate (WTI) crude went down by 22 cents or 0.3% to $73.44 per barrel, reported.

After the fresh hike, petrol prices Rs 96.66 per litre in Delhi and diesel price has expanded to Rs 87.41 per litre. And Mumbaikars will be soon paying Rs 103 for a litre of petrol and Rs 95 for diesel.
