

In IPL 2020 all participants will get a new digital experience

Consumer durable supplier Usha International is the official partner of Mumbai Indians during the seventh consecutive year. But the Indian Premier League (IPL) 2020 season will be different for this durable company. This year the trade partners and their families will collaborate with the Mumbai Indians over a Zoom call. The company also planned to host an online contest with Mumbai Indians.