

Nitin Gadkari announced about the investment in Highways, MSME Sectors

Union minister Nitin Gadkari announced an increment of the investment in the Indian highways and MSME sectors, the MSME ministry by international institutions and bodies. In the scheme of Highlighting road safety measures the minister also explained the objective of achieving zero road fatalities by 2030. According to him, automobile and micro, small and medium enterprises are the two ways of investment for developing the economy.