

Skoda Auto Volkswagens Made for India Compact SUV Could Come By 2023

The Indian arm of the world's largest automotive maker Volkswagens Group Skoda Auto Volkswagen is thinking to enter the quick rising, however extremely aggressive, a marketplace for sub-four-metre SUVs in India to solve the likes of Hyundai Motor and Tata Motors.

After having committed to invest more than 1 billion euros in the Indian market under its 2.0 strategy, the group is now working on a plan to make an India-specific sub-compact SUV to gain from lower tax for such vehicles, people in the know said.
