With 54,157 new discharges in the last 24 hours, the gross going cases extended 5,20,773

India stated 47,638 new COVID-19 infections in the last 24 hours, taking the gross cases in the country to 84,11,724, as reported by the Union Ministry of Health and Family Welfare's data. With 54,157 new discharges in the previous 24 hours, the entire active cases reached 5,20,773 and the increasing recoveries are now at 77,65,966. As reported from the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR), a gross of 11,54,29,095 samples have been tested for coronavirus to November 5, of these, 12,20,711 samples were tested yesterday.