

Trump threatens to use the military for riot control

In a last-minute address from White House President Donald Trump has threatened to deploy the US military if the states and cities fail to stop violence during the protests. Protests have broken all over the US after the death of a black man George Floyd because of police brutality. The protests have turned so bad that at one point the president was taken to the security bunker as the protesters came very close to the Whitehouse.